

GREAT LAKES REGIONAL CONFERENCE

April 23-24, 2009

Hosted by: Illinois Council for the Social Studies
Lisle Hilton, Lisle, Illinois

Theme: Now More Than Ever: The Social Studies - A Legacy of Abraham Lincoln

This two-day conference will have both 50-minute sessions and two-hour workshops. As it is the 200th birthday of Lincoln the conference will highlight Lincoln but will include many sessions not exclusively on Lincoln but relevant for grades three through college. Luncheon speakers have not been finalized but will have a theme in relation to Lincoln and Social Studies as an integral component of a student's education.

When: April 23 & 24, 2009 (Thursday 8-4, Friday 8-3)

Where: Lisle Hilton, Lisle Illinois and easily accessible from O'Hare and expressways.

Registration: Registration online or by mail can be procured from our web site www.illinoiscss.org.

For additional Information Contact
Bob Nimitz at nimitz@midwest.net
Shelly Singer at shellysinger10@aol.com