

Session Proposal Form
Great Lakes Regional Conference
Now More Than Ever: The Social Studies – A legacy of Abraham Lincoln
Lisle, Illinois
April 23-24, 2009

All presenters are required to register for the conference. Conference registration forms are available at www.illinoiscss.org

Please include all of the following information in the proposal.

Provide the following contact information for each presenter. Proposal writer, if not a presenter, should also provide contact information.

Name(s)

Address

City, State and Zip Code

Affiliation/Agency/Group

Evening Phone

Day Phone

Email

Describe the proposed presentation using the following format:

Length: 50-minute session or two-hour workshop

Title: Please include a title for your session.

Abstract: A 50-word or less description of your session suitable for inclusion in the program.

Content: Additional information of content and presentation methods not in abstract.

Connection: A description of the relationship of your session to instruction in the social studies classroom.

Target audience: (List those apply) General, Elementary, Middle/Junior High, Secondary, and College/University, Supervisors/Administration

Technology: (Choose only what is required) Screen, Overhead Project, Internet, and LCD Projector. ICSS is able to supply only a limited number of LCD projectors for those unable to bring one and a few rooms with Internet.

All other equipment is the responsibility of the presenter.

This form and the session description may be emailed to John Rathbun at:

genrebun@aol.com. Information may be in the body of the email or in an attachment. Include ICSS Conference: and proposal writer's last name as Subject of email. Expect a reply that the email has been received within two weeks.

If unable to email, information may be mailed to John Rathbun 308 James Pkwy. Washington, IL 61571.

Proposal Deadline – December 31, 2008