

Illinois Council for the Social Studies Application for Council Awards Program

The ICSS Board of Directors is pleased to announce the following awards to recognize distinguished contributions to social studies education:

ICSS Distinguished Service Award – This award recognizes individuals or programs having made significant contributions to the field of social studies education for outstanding teaching, excellence in scholarship, and significant support of social studies education. Awards are also given to a political servant for his or her strong support of social studies education.

ICSS Distinguished Teaching in Social Studies – This award recognizes distinguished classroom teachers at the K-5, middle, high school, and collegiate levels.

ICSS Citizen's Award – This award recognizes individuals or groups for their service in promoting social studies and their long-term efforts to increase public and professional awareness of the social studies and ICSS.

ICSS Outstanding Student Teacher Award – This award recognizes those student teachers demonstrating excellence in social studies education at the K-5, middle, and high school levels.

After selecting the award category for the individual(s) or group you are nominating, please write a short paragraph of why you think this person(s) or group deserve(s) the award. Please return to Don Jolly, 327 Lockwood Place, Jacksonville, IL 62650, by June 1, 2008. Also, please provide nominee's contact information.
