

SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR EDUCATORS

Teaching the ARAB-ISRAELI CONFLICT WITH PRIMARY SOURCES

June 25-27, 2018
Chicago, IL

Participants will receive a $300 honorarium for attending

In this 2.5 day professional development event for teachers, you will:

- Deepen your pedagogic content knowledge about this complex world history topic
- Learn new strategies for engaging students with primary source documents
- Receive ready-to-use lesson plans and standards-aligned curriculum

Topics covered:

- Emergence of Zionism and Arab Nationalism
- World War I and the broken promises made to Arabs and Jews
- The British Mandate era
- State formation and peace treaties
- Continuing conflict & unresolved issues

To apply, go to:

<http://bit.ly/ChicagoInst>

For more information, contact
Andrew Askuvich, ICS Trainer-Educator
andrewaskuvich.ics@gmail.com

Institute for Curriculum Services

www.icsresources.org

