- Free classroom materials three times a year and a discount on all Gilder Lehrman resources including posters and books
- Unlimited access to the Gilder Lehrman Collection of more than 60,000 American historical documents
- Museum quality traveling panel exhibitions on major historical topics
- Invitations to forums and conferences featuring leading historians
- Opportunities for students to participate in national history competitions

New Website Launching Spring 2012 –

Featuring Exclusive Online Content for Affiliate Schools

A new comprehensive website of American history, www.gilderlehrman.org, featuring history by era with primary source documents and interdisciplinary teaching tools with an emphasis on literacy. Content is searchable by topic, theme, grade level, and Common Core Standards. Members of Affiliate Schools will have access to exclusive lesson plans, teachable documents, videos, podcasts, toolkits, and more.

How to Become an Affiliate School

Teachers and principals are encouraged to apply using the form available at www.gilderlehrman.org/affiliate. Applications from all schools K-12, urban, rural, public, parochial, and independent, are welcome. Upon enrollment, Gilder Lehrman resources and programs are immediately available to every teacher.

The Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History is a nonprofit organization supporting the study and love of American history. Its programs, which have received awards from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Organization of American Historians, reach teachers and students in all 50 states and abroad.
